

- Access to Heritage Quest a genealogical research service
- Access to NoveList a reader's advisory service
- Access to the Health Reference Center Service: a database that provides access to a variety of credible personal health information.
- Access to StarCat The Online Catalog of Physical Library materials .
- Access to The STLS Digital Catalog that allows you to check out e-books, downloadable audiobooks and access streaming videos on a computer.
- Access to JobNow a online job seeking, resume assistance service
- Access to a variety of Subscription Services
- The option for patrons to receive an email listing the items they checkout.
- The option for patrons to request books, e-books and other materials online.
- The option for patrons to receive email notification that their requested items (AKA holds) are available.

- The option for patrons to turn on the "Remember Checkout History" option for their library card accounts which will allow the computer system to save a list of each item they checkout for future reference.

Library Hours 2014:

Monday, Wednesday & Friday:

9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Tuesday & Thursday:

9:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Saturday:

10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Sunday:

Closed

The library is handicapped accessible.
If you require special accommodations,
please call us in advance:
(607) 936-3713.

Personal Technology Materials & Services

Digital Literacy Services
@ the Southeast Steuben County Library

300 Civic Center Plaza, Suite 101
Corning, NY 14830
Tel: 607-936-3713
Email: DIGLIT@STLS.ORG
Website: SSCLIBRARY.ORG

This brochure offers an overview of the free personal technology materials and services you can access through the Southeast Steuben County Library.

Personal Technology Materials are materials that may be accessed by patrons through the modern/personal technology they own; these devices include tablets, e-readers, smartphones, DVD players, CD players, portable music players and computers.

Personal Technology Services consists of access to equipment, software, communications technologies & digital literacy assistance available at the library; and also includes online access to library materials.

Personal Technology Materials Include:

- E-Books
- Downloadable Audiobooks
- Streaming Videos
- Mango Languages Learning Database
- Downloadable music you can keep!
 - Streaming Music
- Circulating E-Readers containing small libraries of e-books in genre categories for adults, young adults and children.

- DVDs
- Music CDs
- Audiobooks on CD
- Circulating Tablets
- Circulating Kindle Fire containing Digital Literacy e-books (AKA computer/technology how-to e-books)
- A Circulating Kindle containing job search & resume creation e-books.
- Access to the Library's Online Calendar of Events.
- Access to online Subscription Databases which offer patrons access to credible research articles and material and a great variety of academic, business, health and other research topics.

Personal Technology Services Available in the Library Include:

- Free Wi-Fi
- Internet connected computers
- Access to Microsoft Word, Excel, Publisher & PowerPoint
- Access to resume templates

- Access to free assistance in learning to use personal technology including tablets, e-readers, smartphone, computers and software.
 - Access to free digital literacy programs on a wide range of topics including computer & software basics.
- Fax Service ($1.00 plus tax per page).
- Photo Copier (0.20 cents per page).
 - Access to a black & white printer
- Access to the Adobe Suite on special Graphic Station computers.
 - Access to a scanner (to scan documents, slides & photos)

Personal Technology Services Available Online Include:

- Access to library apps! OverDrive is the app you use to download e-books, audiobooks and stream videos through the STLS Digital catalog to a smartphone or tablet.

Freegal Music is the app you can use to download and keep three free songs per week; and to stream 3 hours of commercial free music per day from the Freegal Music catalog.