

Finding Voice

A series of programs giving people a voice in a safe and courteous environment.

The Finding Voice series is co-hosted by the League of Women Voters of Steuben County & The Southeast Steuben County Library

Program Schedule January - May:

January

MLK and Non-Violence

What did Martin Luther King, Jr. say about the power of economic withdrawal? What movements today are following Dr. King's example?

What is BDS?

Thursday, January 19, 5:45-7:45

February:

Incarceration and the Criminal Justice System

Diane Folk, local activist and board member of LWV, help us navigate the justice system. Is being poor a crime? What does it mean when prisons are corporations for profit? How is race a factor?

Diane has asked Georgia Verdier, of the Elmira-Corning NAACP to help plan this program to listen to first hand stories in our local community.

Thursday, February 16, 5:45-7:45

March:

Women: Are We There Yet?

Steuben LWV members Rev. Connie Seifert and Carla Stephens are creating a space for women to share their stories.

Tuesday, March 7, 5:45-7:45

April:

Money, Power & Government (draft program title...)

Let's talk about money and power. Are corporations people? Are we an oligarchy? Do corporations have too much power?

Tuesday, April 18, 5:45-7:45 tax day

May:

Food Justice and Food Sovereignty

Tuesday, May 16, 5:45-7:45